

Unusable bottle

Put into a specific container

- Heat-resistant glass products, such as baby bottles, etc., can be considered to be non-burnable waste.
- Please rinse off and do not remove the label
- Please remove the lid.
- Broken bottles may be thrown away as well
- 5-go (0.9-liter) bottles are also considered to be waste bottles.
- Please also sort and separate bottles that contained oil by their individual color.

Brown

Transparent

Other colors

Bottles that look brown

Bottles that have been directly printed on to

Bottles for cosmetic use can be put out as recyclable garbage.

Sorting of bottle lids/caps

Metallic caps/crown caps

➡ non-burnable waste

➡ plastic containers and packaging

♻️ mark lids

Reusable bottles

Put into a specific container

- Please rinse off and do not remove the label
- If the bottle is broken or has no sticker, please put it out as unusable bottle

1-sho (1.8-liter) bottles
Beer bottles

Beer bottles (extra large, large, medium, small)

Lids are considered plastic containers and packaging. Please remove them. ♻️

Sheets of glass

- Frosted glass and shattered items can also be put out as garbage.
- Regarding window glass, since it is considered to be construction waste, it should be handled as garbage that is difficult to dispose of.
- Heat-resistant glass and tempered glass are unburnable garbage

Items that are often mistakenly brought for disposal
Porcelain goods, glass cups, and ashtrays, etc., should be considered to be "non-burnable waste."

Batteries

manganese batteries • alkaline batteries • button batteries • rechargeable batteries

• All batteries may be put in the same container and will be sorted afterwards.

• Batteries are also collected at the following stores

← These labels can only be found on the 4 following products: walkmans, handheld vacuums, cordless telephones, video cameras

Lithium-ion batteries

※ Products where the lithium-ion battery is integrated into the product's body.

Used heated tobacco/e-cigarette products. Mobile batteries.

Portable batteries: list of recycle shop

Yamada Denki Techland Kobayashi Ten	1-0655
Best Denki Kobayashi Ten	23-8200
K's Denki Kobayashi	22-0075
Fukudome Denki	23-2390
Denkano Kariya	23-0082
Kodama Denki	23-6805
Seresu Maeda	23-1185